All portraits are delivered framed with your choice of molding from available stock. For each additional subject or complicated back round, there might be a price change and will be determined at the time of this agreement. Any changes requested by the client after this agreement is signed, may be subject to a price increase. The portrait will be painted using either your chosen photo or one that I have taken at a meeting set in advance. A down payment of one-half is requested at the time of this agreement with the balance due upon delivery. A delivery date will be agreed upon at the signing of this contract. The artist reserves the right to void this contract at anytime and return the deposit. A brass plaque with the subject's name will be on the frame if requested.

Thank you very much.
